RELIGIOUS PEACE IN BUFFALO URGED

Missionaries Appeal to the Leading Protestants and Catholics Unite in Appeal for Tolerant Spirit.

FIRES ADD TO HORRORS WANT NO CHURCH TEST

Burrato, July 15 .- An appeal to the people of this city, irrespective of creed, to join hands to remove all religious intolerence from the city was issued today by a committee of 100, fifty of the members being Catholics, the others Protestants, and all men prominently identified with affairs.

The Catholic signatories assert that there is no oragnization within the church engaged in promoting the politi-States gunboat Callao to aid in the church engaged in promoting the point-work of rescue. Later reports from cal interest of the church or any of its canton say that the Christian hospital authorities do not attempt to influence or direct the political action of its adherents. The Protestant signers urge all organizations requiring a religious test for public office or for employment to be dissolved at once.

The appeal comes is the result of a number of meetings held by leading citizens of all faiths. Buffalo has been torn politics and some in ill feeling caused by the defeat of a project to enlarge and extend the University of Buffalo. and extend the University of Buffalo.
